CASTRONOMICAL AND PISCATORIAL PLEASURE.

J There is no place in the United States where good earing and good fishing are more to be enjoyed than at Babylon-not ancient Babylon, but Babylon on Long Island. All who are fond of piscatorial enjoyments, we would advise to take he long Island cars, at $45 A. M., or 3:46 P. M., to Deer Park, nd thence by stage to Habylon. And when landed they will me mine host, Win. B. Watson, one of the best caterers, and withal, one of the cleverest of gentleften, ready to receive one enterian them at the American, an hotel, second scarcely o any in renowned Gotham. After a night of refreghing leep, they can, under the guidance and direction of host Watson, who is "posted," commence as arduous a day's work at "binefah finding," as they desire. The season was never better, so says the "oldest inhabitants." One thing we hance: that we, two amateurs, caught is Thursday sitty six, and on Friday one hundred and four, weighing from seven pounds downward. It. S. WILLIAMS, 184 Fulton street.
